

Andrew Burke Appointed Association Manager of the Metro Detroit USBC Association

MADISON HEIGHTS, Mich. – The Metro Detroit USBC Association is proud to announce the appointment of Andrew Burke as its new Association Manager.

A familiar face within the bowling community, Andrew brings years of experience, dedication, and a genuine passion for the sport. Through his involvement as a bowler, volunteer, and leader, he has built strong relationships throughout the bowling community and earned the respect of fellow bowlers, association leaders, and bowling center proprietors alike.

Andrew's commitment to bowling extends far beyond competition. He has devoted countless hours to supporting local associations, tournaments, and programs that help strengthen and grow the sport. His understanding of the challenges and opportunities facing bowling today, combined with his collaborative approach, makes him well suited to serve the Metro Detroit bowling community in this important role.

In addition to his service to the sport, Burke is also an accomplished competitor. He was a member of the championship team that captured the Team All-Events title at the 2018 USBC Open Championships, one of bowling's most prestigious accomplishments. While his achievements on the lanes are noteworthy, those who know him best recognize his dedication to the people and friendships that make bowling special.

"It is a tremendous honor to be selected as the Association Manager of the Metro Detroit USBC Association," said Andrew. "Bowling has given me so much throughout my life, and I am grateful for the opportunity to give back to a community that means so much to me. I look forward to working alongside our board, volunteers, bowling centers, and members to strengthen our programs, support our bowlers, and help ensure the future of our sport for generations to come."

As Association Manager, Andrew will oversee the day-to-day operations of the association, including membership services, tournament administration, communications, and support for local bowling centers. He will work closely with association leaders and volunteers to enhance member experiences, encourage participation, and continue building a strong and welcoming bowling community throughout Metro Detroit.

Andrew's appointment reflects the association's ongoing commitment to serving its members while preserving the rich bowling tradition that has long been a cornerstone of communities across Southeast Michigan. His leadership, experience, and passion for the sport will help guide the Metro Detroit USBC Association as it continues to grow and support bowlers of all ages and skill levels.
